

Exercise 2

Read the story, pick the correct word in the sentence.

The haunted house

In our little town there is an urban legend about a haunted house. It is at the end of a street filled with old houses. All of them look scary but that one takes the (cake / coffin). It is three stories tall and the walls are a dark grey. On top of the building are these scary looking statues called (gargoyles / bats). The windows are smashed in and the garden in unkept.

Some say that at night you can hear howling coming from the building. As if there are (Werewolves / Vampires) inside. They are these big furry beasts that will eat you right up If the (raven / moon) is full. They have big (warts / teeth). Or vampires who use their (fangs / gravestones) to suck your blood inhabit the place.

But I don't think that is true.

Some say a (witch/ monster) lives inside that makes (potions / crisps) in her (gravestone/ cauldron). They say she has a black (soda / cat) and that she has a (candy / wart) on her nose. Worst of all they say she flies on her (bat / broomstick) at night to eat all the children that don't listen to their parents. Many dress up as her for Halloween, though it is just a (witch / costume).

But I don't think that is true.

Other say someone died there and was decapitated. They say it is now haunted by a (ghost / zombie) who will only rest when you bring it its (Skull / jack-o-lantern). They say the ghost will haunt you forever even if you only visit once.

But I don't think that is true.

What I think is the home belongs to a crazy scientist who creates (zombies / mummies) out of body parts. I think the (werewolves / monsters) he creates roam the streets at night looking for their next victim.

What do you think?
